Check the course listing to determine dates and times, and remember to mark the course dates on your calendar. Please pay by check – no cash – made out to First Parish in Concord with Wright Tavern Center (WTC) in the memo only. All registration fees are due at the time of registration, along with a completed registration form.

REGISTRATION DEADLINE and CANCELLATION POLICY: Registration closes one week in advance of the course start date. Your payment must be received by the registration deadline. A minimum of six paid registrations is required for a course to run, and eight for a course to be renewed. Courses without a sufficient number of registrations will be cancelled, so please sign up early if you are interested in taking a particular course. We also request that you register in advance for courses that have no fee. We appreciate your support of this new policy which is being created out of respect for our teachers and presenters, as well as for all participants.

If you are interested in teaching or leading a course for the spring term, please contact the Program Director Mary Elizabeth Wheeler at 978-369-9602 or FPTavern@aol.com. Course proposals for the Winter/Spring term are due by October 15, 2008.

The Wright Tavern Center for Spiritual Renewal is a nonprofit organization supported by gifts of spirit, time and money. We offer our grateful thanks to the course leaders and participants and welcome your donation of spirit, time and money (tax-deductible). We are pleased to welcome you to the Wright Tavern Center. We look forward to serving you.
